

K-10 Teachers of English and Curriculum Leaders are invited to participate in a Curriculum Café workshop focused on

VIEWING

Thursday 16 March
3:45-4:45pm
Allendale Primary

Presenters:

Jen Gadsby & Tammie Jones (Allendale TDS Team) using content (with permission) from Drs Michelle Anstey and Geoff Bull—authors of the First Steps Viewing documents.

This Professional Learning event is the first in a series of 3 PL events and will provide an opportunity to explore the aspect of viewing in the WA English Curriculum focusing on;

- multimodal texts
- the semiotic systems of viewing (what they are and the language we use to teach them)
- how to teach students to read, analyse and create visual texts in specific relation to the visual semiotic system.

This is a practical workshop for participants to review their own current practise in teaching viewing, gain some new resources and skills to teach viewing and create plans to use these skills back in their own schools.

To attend this event please enrol on the PLIS event calendar using the following link by Tuesday 14 March <https://plis.det.wa.edu.au/?EventID=15643>
